CELEBRATE THE PAPERBACK RELEASE OF VESPER FLIGHTS, AN ESSAY COLLECTION ABOUT OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE NATURAL WORLD

Free virtual event presented by Bookshop Santa Cruz and co-sponsored by Friends of Santa Cruz State Parks

JULY 8, 2021—SANTA CRUZ, CA — Bookshop Santa Cruz, in partnership with Friends of Santa Cruz State Parks, will host a free online event celebrating the paperback release of Vesper Flights. The free, virtual book talk will be at 11 a.m. on Sunday, July 18. Registration is required: <https://www.crowdcast.io/e/vesper-flights>.

From the New York Times bestselling author of H is for Hawk and winner of the Samuel Johnson Prize for nonfiction, comes Vesper Flights, a transcendent collection of essays about the human relationship to the natural world. Animals don't exist to teach us things, but that is what they have always done, and most of what they teach us is what we think we know about ourselves. The book is available for purchase at Bookshop Santa Cruz.

In Vesper Flights, Helen Macdonald brings together a collection of her best-loved essays, along with new content ranging from nostalgia for a vanishing countryside to the tribulations of farming ostriches to her own private vespers while trying to fall asleep.

Meditating on notions of captivity and freedom, immigration and flight, Helen invites us into her most intimate experiences: observing the massive migration of songbirds from the top of the Empire State Building, watching tens of thousands of cranes in Hungary, seeking the last golden orioles in Suffolk's poplar forests. She writes with heart-tugging clarity about wild boar, swifts, mushroom hunting, migraines, the strangeness of birds' nests, and the unexpected guidance and comfort we find when watching wildlife.

By one of this century's most important and insightful nature writers, Vesper Flights is a captivating and foundational book about observation, fascination, time, memory, love and loss, and how we make sense of the world around us.
